

In Ohio, the action level for lead in drinking water is 0.015 mg/L and the action level for copper is 1.3 mg/L. In Nevada, the maximum safe level for lead in drinking water is 0.015 mg/L and the maximum safe level for copper is 1.3 mg/L. In Iowa, the action level for lead in drinking water is 0.015 mg/L and the action level for copper is 1.3 mg/L. In Missouri, the safety level for lead in drinking water is 0.015 mg/L and the safety level for copper is 1.3 mg/L.